

Delta 9 Cannabis Inc.

Symbol: TSX.V: DN

Market Cap: 59.1M

Sector: Cannabis

Purpose: Open Market Buying / Raise Awareness

Delta 9 was founded in 2012 by father and son team, Bill and John Arbuthnot, and obtained a license to distribute medical cannabis in March 2014, becoming the 4th Licensed Producer of medical cannabis in Canada. After much preparation, Delta 9 became a publicly traded company on Monday, November 6th, 2017 trading as a Tier 2 Industrial Issuer on the TSX Venture Exchange originally under the stock ticker "NINE" but changed in July 2019 to "DN". Delta 9 graduated to the TSX main board on September 3, 2019.

Investor Bullet Points

- Delta 9 Cannabis Inc. ("D9") is a vertically integrated cannabis company serving the recreational cannabis market in Canada.
- D9 is a market leader in Manitoba with 35% market share with 9 retail stores in Canada, plans for 20 retail stores by 2021.
- Operates a production facility with 8,325 kg of cannabis per year with licences to sell to 72% of Canada's population.
- D9 has sold over 200 Grow pods, valued at $12 million in revenue over the last 12 months.
 - Grow pods are 40-foot cube shipping containers retrofitted to be able to cultivate cannabis
 - These pods are modular, scalable, stackable and are designed to mitigate the risk of significant crop loss.

John Arbuthnot, CEO

John is the Co-Founder and CEO of Delta 9 Cannabis Inc., a vertically integrated and publicly traded Canadian cannabis company headquartered in Winnipeg, Manitoba. John has driven Delta 9's growth from its original 2 founders to over 300 employees today. Delta 9 has automated its production capacity of 8,350 Kg/year to lower cost per gram to $0.74. He has rolled out a chain of nine Delta 9 branded retail stores and has plans for another 11 this next year. Since inception John raised over $80 million in capital and took Delta 9 public on the TSX Exchange under the symbol DN, becoming the youngest CEO of a publicly traded cannabis company.